Greetings!

It is with great pleasure that we invite you on this European Tour to Austria and Germany.

The highlight of the tour is to travel to Oberammergau, Germany in order to take in the town's production of The Passion Play; the story of Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem through his Crucifixion and the Resurrection. The professionally produced six hour performance - three hours in the morning and afternoon divided by lunch - will be spectacularly breathtaking. Follow the story through the magnificent staging, majestic costuming and awe inspiring orchestration.

The internationally renowned Play is performed every ten years, at the beginning of the decade. Our stay in Oberammergau is at the quaint Turmwirt Hotel, within walking distance of the theatre.

We would like to extend this invitation to join us. Do not miss this wonderful time of fellowship, adventure and beautiful European summertime scenery. Space is limited, so complete the enclosed registration form and mail it today with your deposit. Best regards!

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY

DAY 01 - DEPARTURE USA

Today we depart the US for our flight to Vienna, Austria.

DAY 02 - ARRIVAL VIENNA AUSTRIA

Upon arrival at the airport we will be met by our tour manager and luxury motor coach. We transfer to the beautiful imperial city of Vienna. Vienna is an architectural and artistic masterpiece known as the city of music. Famous composers were drawn to Vienna including Ludwig Van Beethoven, and Mozart. Many of the most famous musicians are buried in Vienna - Mozart in a common grave in St Mark's Cemetery (1791), while Beethoven, Brahms, Gluck, Schubert, Johann and Josef Strauss all lie in 'musician's square' in the Zentralfriedhof. This afternoon we take in old Vienna with its charming squares threaded by lovely narrow streets lined with charming houses. We will visit the magnificent St Stephen's Cathedral - the 'Dom' which has its origins in the 12th century. We will have dinner and overnight at our hotel in Vienna. (D)

DAY 03 - VIENNA

This morning we enjoy an orientation tour of this great city featuring the famous "Ringstrasse" lined with gracious buildings such as the Hofburg, parliament, the national theatre, the Opera House and city hall. We also see The Prater with its giant Ferris wheel, and the magnificent Belvedere Palace and gardens. We have a guided tour of the beautiful Schonbrunn Palace, summer court to Queen Maria Theresa in the early 18th century. This afternoon is at leisure to enjoy great shopping, world-class art galleries or just strolling and enjoying the unique ambience of this beautiful city with a stop at one of the famous coffee houses for delicious cakes and fine coffee. This evening enjoy dinner at a local Heuriger tavern on the outskirts of the city before returning to our hotel for overnight. (B, D)

DAY 04 - VIENNA / MELK / SALZKAMMERGUT

Leave Vienna bound westwards and enjoy a memorable scenic journey today. We take a boat ride along the river Danube from Krems to Melk and stop to visit the exquisite Abbey church of Melk. We continue into the Salzkammergut - a region of aesthetic perfection - pristine crystal clear lakes fringed with vast mountains and endless green meadows. We will visit Hallstatt, an incredible picture postcard village perched on the edge of a lake surrounded by craggy mountains. Continue to our hotel for overnight and dinner. (B, D)

DAY 05 - SALZKAMMERGUT / SALZBURG

This morning we make our way to some delightful villages in the region - a region made world famous in the film The Sound of Music. We visit lovely St Wolfgang set on Lake Wolfgangsee. We visit St Gilgen noted for its array of traditional houses painted in powder blue, rose pink, ochre and terracotta and its abundance of flowers. Continue to Mondsee - an utterly delightful village whose Abbey church was used for the wedding scene in the film The Sound of Music. Our journey continues to Mozart's city, Salzburg. We will have dinner and overnight at our hotel in Salzburg. (B, D)

DAY 06 - SALZBURG

This morning enjoy a guided tour which will take us through the charming baroque centre of the city with its countless architectural treasures - the Great Festival Hall, the exquisite Domplatz graced by its ornate 17th century Cathedral, St Peter's Abbey, the outstanding Mirabell Palace gardens and the lively Getreidegasse where we visit Mozart's birthplace. The remainder of day is at leisure to enjoy the wonderful atmosphere of this charming town set upon a bend in the river Salzach. Dinner at charming local restaurant and overnight in Salzburg (B, D)
